The Careers Service are here to encourage you in your career exploration and development.

Finding the Careers Service on Moodle

The screenshot shows the Moodle @ LSHTM homepage. At the top, there is a dark green navigation bar. On the left, the LSHTM logo and name are displayed. In the center, there are three navigation buttons: 'Home', 'Courses', and 'Calendar'. On the right, there is a user profile section for 'Josh Phillips'. A large green arrow points from the top right towards the user profile. Another green arrow points from the 'Home' button to the right. A third green arrow points from the top right towards the 'Courses' button. Below the navigation bar, there is a large pink banner with the text 'MOODLE @ LSHTM' and a welcome message. To the left of the banner is a mosquito icon. Below the banner, there is a video player with the title 'Creating a more healthy, sustainable and equitable world: LSHTM...' and a 'Welcome to Moodle @ LSHTM' section with a brief description of the Moodle Home page.

Use the named tabs to navigate through the information employers have provided. They have each been aimed to provide information about:

- The organisation and its work
- The experience and qualifications they typically look for in applicants
- Particular student groups their roles are likely to be of interest to (eg particular MSc programmes, systems programmes, PhD students)
- Typical job roles at that organisation
- Whether they are currently recruiting
- Where in the world roles are typically located

About the careers service

Who can use the LSHTM Careers Service?

- Current full-time or part-time students on the 'intensive' master's programmes;
- Current full-time or part-time research degree students;
- Diploma students (DTN and DTM&H);
- Recent graduates of these programmes (who graduated within the last two years).

Support for distance learners

- Recordings of most LSHTM careers events and workshops, where time zones make virtual attendance challenging
- Resources for international learners, including subscription to GoGlobal for localised CV and application etiquette
- Access to the University of London's comprehensive programme of additional careers events - autumn.

What we offer

- Employability talks and workshops;
- One-to-one career guidance, CV and application advice;
- Practice interviews - experience a real interview situation, receive feedback and tips for improvement;
- Access to career events, including employer and alumni talks and panel discussions;
- Access to vacancies listings;
- Online resources giving information on career options, further study, job-seeking and application skills: take a tour of our Moodle pages.
- Watch an introduction to your Careers Service (recorded in Welcome Week 2021)
- Watch an introduction to a career in global health (recorded at the Virtual Open Day)
