Experimenting

LONDON
SCHOOL of HYGIENE
& TROPICAL
MEDICINE

Experiment with your target organisations and people

Experiment – Build test projects

- Conversations (alumni, academics, peers, employees, employers)
- Informational Interviews (you ask the questions)
- Take a course
- Attend a conference, event, exhibition
- Shadowing
- Volunteering
- Internship
- Summer project
- Part-time work
- Consulting

Experiment – Measure "Success"

- Use three 'fulfilment metrics' to assess your Project:
 - Resonance - Does it give you energy?
 - Competence - Are you good at it?
 - Sustainability - Can you make a living from it?
- The intersection of these three is ultimately where you're aiming to get to.
- If you can sufficiently measure one of these metrics, you'll have enough to know what next step to take.

Experiment – Pivot or Persevere

- Based on whether your Project has been successful (or fallen short), you have a choice to make:
- Do you pivot or persevere?
- If your idea meets your fulfilment metrics, you can persevere,
 - Run another Project to help you further refine where you're headed
- If your idea falls short in a particular area, you're going to need to pivot – or course-correct.
- Find out what doesn't work as much as what does

Timelines to be aware of

- Some PhD programmes have November/December/January deadlines.
- There are a few programmes recruiting one cohort per year (see next slides).

Some 'graduate schemes' (limited)

UK

- Fast Track - Central Government, Department of Health and Social Care, little experience/some experience, deadlines end October
- NHS Graduate Management Trainee Scheme – various strands, deadlines end October, little experience/some experience
- NHS Scientist Training Programme – various strands, usually January deadlines, little experience/some experience
- Management Consultancy graduate schemes, earliest deadlines October
- Charities eg Wellcome, (must be recent graduate), Cancer Research
- Pharmaceutical industry graduate schemes – various strands (eg GSK Future Leaders, AstraZeneca Early Talent), little experience/some experience, often variable deadlines (scheme closes when enough applications received)
- Fast Stream – The application window is open between midday 10 October 2024 and midday 07 November 2024
- Also, some schemes specifically for those with PhD (eg GSK Esprit R&D Development Programme)

A few examples outside the UK

US:

Fellows programs eg CDC, Gates Foundation, Global Health Corps (usually require experience)

Europe:

ECDC traineeship programme (little experience, Dec deadlines), EPIET/EUPHEM (some experience, Sept deadlines)

Plus large management consultancy/big pharma companies have opportunities globally
