Paid Opportunity as Student Telephone Fundraiser

LSHTM's Alumni Relations are hiring students to work as Student Telephone Fundraisers. This is a fantastic opportunity to join a friendly team, gain valuable experience, and raise funds for an important cause. If you are a confident communicator and like to chat to new people – this could be the perfect job for you! As a Student Telephone Fundraiser, you'll: call LSHTM alumni to share updates, hear their stories, and invite them to support current students through charitable donations; work remotely from home in the evenings and weekends during the campaign; and be part of a campaign that makes a real impact on students. Here are the key details:

- Closing date for applications: Monday 3 November
- Selection sessions: weeks commencing 3, 10 and 17 November (date & times tbc, please keep some mornings free)

- Training: Saturday 7 and Sunday 8 February (attendance at both days required)
- Calling dates: Monday 9 February – Sunday 1 March (You would be expected to work the duration of the campaign and commit to 3 shifts per week including one weekend shift which in total would be an average of 12.5 hours per week)
- Pay £13.85 per hour, plus holiday pay

This is the link to the online application form. If you have any questions about the role or application process you can contact phonecampaign@lshmt.ac.uk. There will be an information event on the 20 October at 17:30 in the Manson Lecture Theatre at Keppel Street.

Clinton Health Access Initiative (CHAI) Opportunities

 2026 Internship Intake Now Live CHAI has officially launched their 2026 Internship Intake on their website. Applications are open until November 15th, and they plan to begin the matching process early in the new year.

 Call for Experts: Global Health Technical Specialists They have also introduced a rolling recruitment initiative for their talent pipeline - an open invitation for recent graduates and alumni to submit their profiles for future technical roles. This is not tied to a specific job opening but is a proactive way for CHAI to engage accomplished and emerging talent.
