

Careers in Global and Public Health alumni panel

Our final event this term is an alumni panel discussion on Tuesday 28 November 17:30-18:30 (UK time) focused on Careers in Global and Public Health. Panellists with a range of backgrounds and experience will speak about their work and their career path to date, followed by Q&A. The panellist line-up looks like this:

- Ekua Yankah – Senior Adviser Partnerships at Brands on a Mission
- Dr. Alan Schamroth – Consultant at Calcutta Rescue Fund
- Paul Barr - Associate Professor at The Dartmouth Institute for Health Policy & Clinical Practice, Biomedical Data Science
- Abdinoor Mohamed – Epidemiologist at US Centers for Disease Control and Prevention
- Abda Mahmood - Associate Director, Value Evidence and Outcomes for Vaccines Europe at GSK

Do go and check their profiles on LinkedIn to see the wealth of experience they bring to this panel. Their biographies are available to read online here. The event starts at 17.30 and ends at 18:30 (UK time), and will take place on Zoom. Here is the link to join on Zoom.

Autumn term careers programme

If you haven't already checked out our Autumn term careers events you can view the programme here. Workshops generally run Tuesday and Wednesday at lunchtime. Further details are in the listing below. We also recommend that you check the recordings section on Moodle for relevant resources or to see a recording of the event if you missed it. Click on Recordings of careers workshops and events and then select the relevant section.

Week beginning 20 Nov

PhD Applications – Tues 21 Nov, 13:00-13:30pm (UK time), join on Zoom here

PhD Applications (repeat session) – Wed 22 Nov, 13:00-13:30pm (UK time), join on Zoom here

This session will cover what academic recruiters are looking for and how to draft personal statements, CVs and research proposals.

Week beginning 11 Dec

LinkedIn – Tues 12 Dec, 13:00-13:30 (UK time), link to join will appear on the ‘Forthcoming workshops and events’ page on Moodle.

LinkedIn (repeat session) – Wed 13 Dec, 13:00-13:30 (UK time), join on Zoom here

In this session we will cover why to use LinkedIn and how to make the most of this tool for your career development.

Spring term careers programme

We are currently finalising details for our spring term careers events. You can view the programme here. Now might be a good time to review this term’s events, see if there are any you want to watch again or that you missed at the time. Click on Recordings of careers workshops and events and then select the relevant section. Here are some highlights from the upcoming spring programme:

- Virtual Careers Fair – Wednesday, 24 January 2024. So far we have 15 employers signed. We will run an event the week before to help you think about how to prepare for the fair so you get the most from the event.

- Working in the UK – visa options – Friday 16 February 2024. Our speaker is responsible for updating the relevant pages on the UKCISA site which has all the most up-to-date information on visa options. He will be answering your visa questions.
- Alumni networking – Monday 12 February 2024. This is a great chance to build your community in-person both with alumni and other students, many of whom have already had a fascinating career. Many people have made great connections, including a follow-up on LinkedIn, in previous years so you may want to think about your profile and connections ahead of the event!

Podcast series from University of London

Global Careers Calls is the podcast series from the University of London Careers Service created especially to share the professional trajectories and experience of alumni of the University of London, who have come a long way in their careers since graduating from UoL distance and flexible programmes of study. The first season is made up of 6 episodes where the Deputy Head of Careers, Laura Brammar, interviews alumni that studied and graduated from UoL in different parts of the world and who managed to climb the job ladder with success.

Their professional journeys are in different fields including:

- Tropical medicine
- International development and humanitarian aid
- IT, technology
- Global Health

And in different geographical areas such as Barbados, Africa, Asia, Pakistan.

It is completely accessible to all kind of students and audiences. To find the episodes, use the podcast website link here which doesn't require any subscription.

Refunding ticket price for LSE Discover International Organisations event

If you attended this event using one of the allocated LSHTM tickets, you are entitled to claim a refund. In order to do so, please send us brief key points from at least three sessions you attended on this form: <https://forms.office.com/e/Gm1qWjF1yy>

A 'session' could also be an informational interview at one of the employer stands. There is space to feed back on more sessions if you are able to – all this information will be collated into notes to make available to all LSHTM students, as we only had a very small number of tickets for the event and want to share the benefit with everyone. Please include your LSHTM email address on the form as this will be used to send you an email with the bank details form for you to claim your refund. You will also need to provide proof of purchase.

Conference on Public Health in Africa 2023

Doctors With Africa CUAMM are hosting an official side event for the International Conference on Public Health in Africa, focused on 'Operational research and civil society contributions to enhance Universal Health coverage'. The event takes place online via Zoom on 22 November 18:00-20:00 (Central Africa Time). You can register here to join the free virtual event.

Free Employability Training for International Students

This two-week online course funded by the British Council will equip international students/graduates with the skills and understanding that they need in order to navigate and enter their local employment market. It will support them to identify their skills, and how to communicate these effectively to potential employers, as well as building an understanding of organisational and workplace culture.

For full details and enrollment click here.

Jobs

We have a number of jobs advertised on Moodle. The two different feeds are described in this section. This is a useful resource wherever you are in your career thinking. As you start your studies, it can be useful to see the kind of jobs that are posted and which ones seem the best fit for your interests, skills and experience. Currently jobs listed include Programme Officer and Programme Manager at The MENTOR Initiative, Medical Research Coordinator (with French/Spanish) at International SOS, and Technical Support Officer at Malaria Consortium. The feed will always show the most recent 15 opportunities only. You can also find jobs advertised on LSHTM Connect, which may include some of those that have dropped off the feed. We recommend some other useful job sites here.